Post Repair

As many of you are aware our Post building is in need of major repairs. Unfortunately those repairs require money and man power. Too often only a select few agree to help with fundraisers, cleaning, and repair. No matter your skill level there is always something you can do to help. Step up today and speak with one of our officers. Let them know you want to help. Give them ideas to bring in the money needed. They will be glad for the help. We only succeed by working together.
